

Historic Brass Society Early Brass Festival

In Collaboration with the Vintage Band Festival

Paul Niemisto, Director
August 1-4, 2019, Northfield, MN

Dozens of period instrument band performances

www.vintagebandfestival.org

Informal early brass playing sessions for all early brass instruments, lectures, social event, HBS membership meeting

Papers and presentations with:

Wm. Hall "The 1st Nebraska Volunteer Infantry Regiment Band, 1861-1862", Glen Newton "The Mississippi River Brass Band", Michael O'Connor "Life and Music of Thomas Coates", Joy Riggs "An Iowa Regimental Band's 1906 Tour of the South", Jari Villanueva "Bugle Calls and Marches in the works of John Philip Sousa", Bill Reynolds "Circus Band Workings" Gery Doumoulin "The arguèdène tradition in Wallonia (Belgium): an entertainment practice at the crossroads of brass band, dance and folk music traditions" Don Johnson "Chamber Works for Keyed Trumpet in the Early Classical Era" Nolan Hauta "New Horizon Bands" Robert W. Apple "New sources of Harmoniemusik and Turkischemusik pieces with keyed trumpet" Petter Carlson "200 Years of Swedish Brass Instruments" Friedemann Immer "New Thoughts on Keyed Trumpet" Scott Muntefering "Lady Bands in Iowa" Don Larry "Sisters in Brass, A Harmonious Duet for New Mexico and Arizona Territories"

Send to: Historic Brass Society: 148 W. 23rd Street #5F New York, NY 10011 USA

Name _____

Address _____

Email and Phone _____

Instrument(s) _____

Arrival and Departure Times _____

Registration enclosed $40 (paid HBS members) due July 1st $20 additional late fee

I am not an HBS member but want to join $42 annual dues enclosed

All checks payable to: Historic Brass Society

Accommodations

Archer House www.archerhouse.com

Froggy Bottoms River Suites www.froggybottoms.com

Americ Inn www.americinn.com/otels/mn/northfield

Country Inns and Suites www.countryinns.com

Super 8 Motels www.super8.com

College Dorms see Vintage Band Festival website